

(2)

Browser APIs

1. DOM (Document Object Model) API

- allow you to manipulate HTML and CSS
- creating and removing & changing HTML
- dynamically applying new styles to your Page.

2. Geolocation API:- retrieves geographical information.

3. Canvas and WebGL:- allow you to create animated 2D and 3D graphics.

4. Audio and Video APIs like HTMLMedia Element and WebRTC allow you to do really interesting things with multimedia.

Third Party APIs

→ are not build into the browser by default.

→ Twitter API :- allow you to do things like displaying your latest tweets on your website.

→ The Google Maps API and Open Street Map API allow you to embed custom maps into your website and other such functionality.